

Implementation and audit

Data on pre- and post-haemodialysis plus CAPD patient serum magnesium levels should be collected by ANZDATA now and repeated 1 year after promulgation of the above guidelines – together with a survey of dialysate magnesium concentrations. Further cross-sectional data could be obtained if questions on PTH levels or symptoms such as cramps were included.

OUT OF DATE